Bridgepoint Adds Andrew Nussbaum to its Growing Impact Investment Bank

Release: September 23, 2019

Omaha, NE – Bridgepoint Investment Banking, a leading full-service boutique investment bank, is pleased to announce and welcome Mr. Andrew Nussbaum as Investment Banking Analyst.

Mr. Nussbaum joins Bridgepoint and the Omaha business community after spending two years at Florida-based Private Equity Firm Calusa Capital Partners. Prior to his time with Calusa Capital Partners, Mr. Nussbaum worked for Federated Investors in the New York-based global equities division. Mr. Nussbaum has also founded the non-profit organization Champions of Charity, focused on enhancing organizations' community service efforts.

The addition of Mr. Nussbaum will support Bridgepoint's continued growth and solutions-focused M&A advisory and capital raising services to national and international companies.

"We are excited to welcome another talented deal professional to our growing firm and to the Midwest market. We are impressed by Andrew's track record in private equity, but more importantly his values and passion for helping people," said Bridgepoint Managing Director, Matt Plooster. Plooster further adds, "Bridgepoint provides a unique platform for top-performing Wall Street investment bankers to leverage their skills in an entrepreneurial environment and growth culture while making a real difference for privately-held companies and their owners."

Mr. Nussbaum received a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from Ave Maria University in Ave Maria, Florida, where he was elected to economics honor society Omicron Delta Epsilon and where he also was Captain of the University's baseball team.
